01 About the Tour

UZBEKISTAN

"A journey to the heart of hadith, wisdom, and Turkish-Islamic civilization..."

Uzbekistan is a unique geography that presents the brightest centers of Islamic knowledge from Bukhara to Samarkand, from Khiva to Tashkent, all in one place. Bukhara, with the traces of great scholars such as Imam Bukhari, Imam Maturidi, and Bahaeddin Nakshibendi, keeps alive the spirit of "the Dome of Islam." The Kalyan Minaret and Mir Arab Madrasah carry the city's spiritual heritage to the present day.

Samarkand, with its Registan Square and Ulugbek Madrasah, represents the pinnacle of learning, art, and astronomy; with its blue domes, it is among the most magnificent stops of Islamic architecture.

Khiva, with its walls, minarets, and historic quarters, appears as a living museum of Islamic urban order.

Tashkent, with the mausoleums of great figures such as Zengi Ata and Sheikh Hovendi Tahir, is a peaceful capital that brings together modern life with ancient spirituality.

A journey in Uzbekistan is an unforgettable spiritual expedition that allows believers to feel the deep heritage of learning, wisdom, and Turkish-Islamic civilization.
